FOOD BANK OF WESTERN NEW YORK
FOOD AND GRANT PROGRAMS
2014 - 2015

A. AGENCY ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

The Agency Assistance Program is a critical support for the Food Bank's member agencies. Through this program, each agency is awarded a grant that can be used to purchase food at wholesale cost. Agencies may also request food storage equipment such as freezers, refrigerators and shelving. These items assist member agencies in storing perishable foods, thereby making available fresh, nutritious choices to their clients.

B. BABY NEEDS PROGRAM

The Baby Needs Program meets emergency needs of infants and young children by providing their caretakers with a supply of diapers, infant formula, baby food and baby care products. These items are distributed through the Food Bank's emergency food providers throughout WNY that have demonstrated a high need for these products.

C. BACKPACK PROGRAM

Many children who rely on free and/or reduced school meals may be left without an adequate supply of food on the weekends or holidays when school is closed. The Backpack Program assists these students by providing easily prepared, nutritious food in take-home bags each week throughout the school year. Each backpack is filled with cereals, shelf stable milk, canned soups, fresh fruit and whole grain snacks. Bags are distributed each Friday at the end of the school day. Recipients are qualified students chosen by teachers, counselors and school staff based on individual need.

D. BANKING ON WELLNESS

Banking on Wellness is a high energy, entertaining and fun exercise and nutrition production, available, free of charge, to schools, churches and the Food Bank's After School Programs. This well-loved program teaches children about the importance of healthy foods and fitness and is in high demand in our four-county service area.

E. BUFFALO NEWS NEEDIEST

Thanks to a generous donation from The Buffalo News Charity Fund, the Food Bank is able to provide holiday meal items such as hams, potatoes and a variety of holiday trimmings to participating Food Bank member agencies. Approximately 200,000 pounds of food is distributed throughout the holiday season to qualified clients, equating to over 150,000 meals.

F. COMMUNITY GARDEN

Located on the Food Bank's property, this community garden offers 22 adoptable garden beds to income-eligible individuals, families and groups. These persons are walked through the growing process by volunteers, and classes are held in this garden on Saturdays throughout the growing season. Participants may keep their harvest, trade it with other participants or donate it back to the Food Bank for use on the Food Express truck.

G. DONATED PRODUCT

Donations of food and other items are provided to food banks by farmers, packers, manufacturers, wholesalers and others in the food industry. Community groups also conduct food drives. Food banks are required by law to distribute donated products only to "infants, elderly or people in need", and distribution must be without charge to clients. Because of the costs involved with acquiring and distributing donated foods however, the law allows food banks to ask agencies for a shared maintenance contribution. Although Feeding America caps such contributions at 19 cents per pound, the Food Bank of WNY is currently asking for 14 cents per pound. These contributions help to defray the costs of operating the Food Bank including staff, maintenance of the building, utilities, and distribution costs. While agencies are urged and expected to contribute shared maintenance, inability to do so does not stand in the way of access to donated foods.

H. ERIE COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL SERVICES (ECDSS)

In 1992, ECDSS partnered with the Food Bank to better serve its low-income clients. Through this partnership, the Food Bank provides selected Erie County pantries with extra food. ECDSS caseworkers can refer clients to these pantries where they receive a package of nutritious food that lasts up to five days.

I. EMERGENCY FOOD & SHELTER PROGRAM/FEDERAL EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT AGENCY (EFSP/FEMA)

The Food Bank has been the recipient of annual EFSP/FEMA grants. These federally-funded grants are administered nationally by the United Way of America and are locally dispersed through the United Way of Erie and Niagara Counties. The Food Bank distributes the funds to eligible emergency food providers who in turn utilize these funds to purchase donated or wholesale food items directly from the Food Bank.

J. ERIE COUNTY DIRECT DELIVERY PROGRAM

Beginning in 2013, the Food Bank transitioned into a direct delivery model for our Erie County member agencies. This endeavor offers them a no-cost transportation solution for getting food from the Food Bank to their facilities' doorsteps. This program is safer and more economical and allows agencies to order larger quantities of product as the delivery trucks have much greater capacity.

K. FOOD EXPRESS

This program enables us to distribute perishable food directly to the clients of our member agencies. Many sites do not have enough storage space to house large amounts of produce and other perishable foods for an extended period of time. The Food Bank and Partners Fighting Hunger (in Chautauqua County) travel to member agencies across all four of the Food Bank's service counties to deliver fresh foods to clients and residents.

L. FOOD SAFETY TRAINING

The Food Bank offers an online, interactive training course about basic food safety. Available, free of charge, to member agencies, the 30-minute course includes information about foodborne illness, personal hygiene and proper receiving, storage and repacking practices.

The Food Bank also offers ServSafe Certification for our agencies that prepare meals for clients on-site. These classes cover a more extensive amount of food safety information including proper food preparation, cooking and serving techniques. This class is offered at different times during the year and requires two days of classroom training and a third day for a certification exam.

M. GOOD COOKIN'

Through the Food Bank's member agencies, adults of all ages can participate in a free, five week cooking course in the Food Bank facility's kitchen. Here they will learn about the new trends in nutrition and easy ways to prepare healthy, well-balanced meals and snacks. They will also receive tips about shopping on a budget and at the end of each class day, they will be provided with recipes and ingredients so they can recreate those meals at home.

N. HUNGER PREVENTION NUTRITION ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (HPNAP)

The New York State Department of Health, Division of Nutrition provides grants to assist eligible emergency food providers. The Food Bank works with its member agencies to gather information including the amount of food distributed and the number of people served at the service sites. This data is submitted to New York State on a monthly basis.

HPNAP funds are used to purchase items that are not typically donated and to pay a portion of the agencies' shared maintenance fees when purchasing donated products. The Food Bank follows nutrition standards from the state when purchasing foods for the agencies. HPNAP funds are also used to purchase local produce for the agencies as well as sanitation and food safety supplies (e.g. soap, disposable gloves and thermometers) to pantries, shelters and soup kitchens.

HPNAP funds also pay a portion of the salary for a Registered Dietitian, making it possible for the Food Bank to provide nutrition education and food safety training for the agencies.

In addition, HPNAP offers limited funding for the Operations Support and Capital Equipment Grant which assists emergency food providers by enabling them to purchase new equipment for food storage or by covering portions of their operating expenses such as staff, utilities, rent and transportation.

O. JUST SAY YES TO FRUITS AND VEGETABLES (JSY)

Just Say Yes to Fruits and Vegetables is a New York State initiative, designed to prevent obesity and to reduce long term chronic disease by promoting the increased consumption of fruits and vegetables. By conducting nutrition education workshops and food demonstrations, JSY has worked to ensure low-income families in NYS choose more nutritious foods, make the most of their food budgets and prepare foods in a safe manner. Each workshop provides practical nutrition information using recipes and cooking demonstrations involving fresh produce. The JSY Program, in partnership with emergency food providers, is dedicated to improving the health and nutritional status of SNAP populations in NYS.

P. KIDS IN THE KITCHEN

"Kids in the Kitchen" is a hands-on program through which children learn about cooking and sound nutrition. Students, ages 7-18, may come to the Food Bank facility's kitchen once weekly for a five week course. They learn how their eating habits affect their health as they prepare simple, nutritious meals and snacks. Children may enroll, free of charge, through the Food Bank's member agencies.

Q. MEALS ON WHEELS / EMERGENCY FOOD KITS

In cooperation with Meals on Wheels and funded by them, the Food Bank distributes Emergency Food Kits to those receiving food through the Meals on Wheels Program. These boxes are to be consumed by the recipients when their regular meal deliveries are disrupted by severe weather. The boxes are packed by the Food Bank and contain enough nonperishable food for six meals (two days).

R. PARTNERS FIGHTING HUNGER

Food provided by the Food Bank to its member agencies located in Chautauqua County is directly delivered to them through the Partners Fighting Hunger Program. Our distribution site is located in a warehouse in Jamestown. Food is delivered each week from the Food Bank in Buffalo to this site. It is then distributed by the Partners Fighting Hunger truck to 47 Chautauqua County agencies. This program has been sustained by private donations as well as grants from the Carnahan Jackson Foundation, the Chautauqua Region Community Foundation, the Sheldon Foundation and others. It is also supported by the St. Susan Center, which is located in the same building as our warehouse.

S. THE PUPPET SHOW

The Puppet Show gives children ages 4-7 the opportunity to learn about the Food Bank and nutrition. Children are taught about the importance of including fruits and vegetables in their diets in a fun and interactive way. They are encouraged to help convince the candy-eating-only dragon to try some healthy foods. The puppets also participate in a school food drive that traces how the Food Bank acquires and distributes food to those in need. This show is free and available to any interested groups in the community.

T. UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE (USDA)

New York State Bureau of Donated Foods, Office of General Services provides food banks across New York State with access to a variety of proteins and nutritionally dense items such as vegetables, fruits and grains. The commodities we receive through this federally-funded program help to bridge the gap in providing healthy meal components that our member agencies can distribute to their clients.

U. VALUE-ADDED PRODUCTS

Sometimes donated products require more than our limited repack capabilities can handle. For example, 12-lb. deli hams are more effectively used by food pantries when they are cut and repackaged into 3-lb. pieces. The cost of such "processing" is called "value-added." Food banks are allowed to pass on these costs to their agencies, but we currently try to raise funds to subsidize "value-added" products.
