PROGRAMS AND SERVICES
Updated as of 6-30-15

CHILDREN'S PROGRAMS

BABY NEEDS PROGRAM

The Baby Needs Program meets emergency needs of infants and young children by providing their caretakers with a supply of diapers, infant formula, and baby care products. These items are distributed through the 40 emergency food providers throughout WNY that have demonstrated a high need for these products. Currently the member agencies participating in the Baby Needs Program serve 1,004 infants and young children, as part of the total of 2,815 served monthly through all of our member agencies.

BACKPACK PROGRAM

Many children who rely on free and/or reduced school meals may be left without an adequate supply of food on the weekends or holidays when school is closed. The Backpack Program assists these students by providing easily prepared, nutritious food in take-home bags each week throughout the school year. Each backpack is filled with cereals, shelf stable milk, canned soups, fresh fruit and whole grain snacks. Bags are distributed each Friday at the end of the school day. Recipients are qualified students chosen by teachers, counselors and school staff based on individual need. The program is operating within 23 schools, serving 1,375 children.

BANKING ON WELLNESS

Banking on Wellness is a high energy, entertaining and fun exercise and nutrition production, available, free of charge, to schools, churches and the Food Bank's After School Programs. This well-loved program teaches children about the importance of healthy foods and fitness and is in high demand in our four-county service area. More than 20,000 students have participated in this beloved program since its inception in 2010.

KIDS IN THE KITCHEN

"Kids in the Kitchen" is a hands-on program through which children learn about cooking and sound nutrition. Students, ages 7-18, may come to the Food Bank facility's kitchen once weekly for a five week course. They learn how their eating habits affect their health as they prepare simple, nutritious meals and snacks. Children may enroll, free of charge, through the Food Bank's member agencies. Each year, approximately 60+ children participate in the program.

PROGRAMMATIC SUPPORT & FOOD DISTRIBUTION

AGENCY ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

The Agency Assistance Program provides financial support for the Food Bank's member agencies. Through this Board-designated program, each agency is awarded a grant that can be used to purchase food at wholesale cost. Currently 65% of the AAP funds requested are for food purchases. Agencies may also request food storage equipment such as freezers, refrigerators and shelving. These items assist member agencies in storing perishable foods, thereby making available fresh, nutritious choices to their clients. Many agencies are changing to a "Client Choice" model of distribution, whereby clients choose their food preferences. In these cases, agencies may request funding for shelving, carts, dollies, glass-front refrigerators, etc. required for the transition.

BUFFALO NEWS NEEDIEST

Thanks to a generous donation from The Buffalo News Charity Fund, the Food Bank is able to provide holiday meal items such as hams, potatoes and a variety of holiday trimmings to participating Food Bank member agencies. Approximately 200,000 pounds of food is distributed throughout the holiday season to qualified clients, equating to over 150,000 meals.

DONATED PRODUCT

Donations of food and other items are provided to food banks by farmers, packers, manufacturers, wholesalers and others in the food industry. Community groups also conduct food drives. Food banks are required by law to distribute donated products only to "infants, elderly or people in need", and distribution must be without charge to clients. Because of the costs involved with acquiring and distributing donated foods, the law allows food banks to ask agencies for a shared maintenance contribution. Although Feeding America caps such contributions at 19 cents per pound, the Food Bank of WNY is currently asking for 14 cents per pound. These contributions help to defray Food Bank operating costs, such as staff, building maintenance, utilities, and distribution costs. While agencies are urged and expected to contribute shared maintenance, inability to do so does not stand in the way of access to donated foods.

ERIE COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL SERVICES (ECDSS)

In 1992, ECDSS partnered with the Food Bank to better serve its low-income clients. Through this partnership, the Food Bank provides selected Erie County pantries with extra food. ECDSS caseworkers can refer clients to these pantries where they receive a package of nutritious food that lasts up to five days, serving as temporary sustenance before clients receive their food stamps.

EMERGENCY FOOD & SHELTER PROGRAM/FEDERAL EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT AGENCY (EFSP/FEMA)

The Food Bank has been the recipient of annual EFSP/FEMA grants. These federally-funded grants are administered nationally by the United Way of America and are locally dispersed through the United Way of Erie and Chautauqua Counties. The Food Bank distributes the funds to eligible emergency food providers who in turn utilize these funds to purchase wholesale food items directly from the Food Bank. The monies can also be used to cover the shared maintenance fees associated with donated product.

ERIE COUNTY DIRECT DELIVERY PROGRAM

Beginning in 2013, the Food Bank transitioned into a direct delivery model for our Erie County member agencies. This endeavor offers them a no-cost transportation solution for getting food from the Food Bank to their facilities' doorsteps. This program is safer and more economical and allows agencies to order larger quantities of product as the delivery trucks have much greater capacity. Expansion of the direct delivery program is on the horizon for Cattaraugus and Niagara counties.

FOOD EXPRESS MOBILE PANTRY

This program enables us to distribute perishable food directly to the clients of our member agencies. Many sites do not have enough storage space to house large amounts of produce and other perishable foods for an extended period of time. The Food Bank and Partners Fighting Hunger (in Chautauqua County) travel to member agencies across all four of the Food Bank's service counties to deliver fresh foods to clients and residents.

HUNGER PREVENTION NUTRITION ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (HPNAP)

The New York State Department of Health, Division of Nutrition provides grants to assist HPNAP-eligible emergency food providers. HPNAP funds are used to purchase items that are not typically donated and to pay a portion of the agencies' shared maintenance fees when ordering donated products. Local produce, as well as sanitation and food safety supplies (e.g. soap, disposable gloves and thermometers) are purchased for pantries, shelters and soup kitchens.

The Food Bank works with its member agencies to gather information including the amount of food distributed and the number of people served at the service sites, and the data is submitted to New York State on a monthly basis. The Food Bank follows nutrition standards from the state when purchasing foods for the agencies.

HPNAP funds also pay a portion of the salary for a Registered Dietitian, making it possible for the Food Bank to provide nutrition education and food safety training for the agencies.

In addition, HPNAP offers limited funding for the Operations Support and Capital Equipment Grant which assists emergency food providers by enabling them to purchase new equipment for food storage or by covering portions of their operating expenses such as staff, utilities, rent and transportation.

MILK COUPON PROGRAM

The Milk Coupon Program is a means of supplying fresh milk to clients without distribution obstacles. Coupons distributed through our member agencies enable clients to procure half gallons of skim and/or fat-free milk (obtained from local farms through the Upstate Milk Cooperative). The Food Bank only pays for what is redeemed. 100% of the individuals and families eligible to receive the coupons are low or no income, and all live below the federal poverty level.

PARTNERS FIGHTING HUNGER (Chautauqua County)

Food provided by the Food Bank to its member agencies located in Chautauqua County is directly delivered to them through the Partners Fighting Hunger Program. Our distribution site is located in a warehouse in Jamestown. Food is delivered each week from the Food Bank in Buffalo to this site. It is then distributed by the Partners Fighting Hunger truck to 47 Chautauqua County agencies. This program has been sustained by private donations as well as grants from the Carnahan Jackson Foundation, the Chautauqua Region Community Foundation, the Sheldon Foundation and others. It is also supported by the St. Susan Center, which is located in the same building as our warehouse.

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE (USDA)

New York State Bureau of Donated Foods, Office of General Services provides food banks across New York State with access to a variety of proteins and nutritionally dense items such as vegetables, fruits and grains. The commodities we receive through this federally-funded program help to bridge the gap in providing healthy meal components that our member agencies can distribute to their clients.

VALUE-ADDED PRODUCTS

Sometimes donated products require more than our limited repack capabilities can handle. For example, through the help of the New York State Venison Coalition, we procure over 20,000 pounds of high-quality protein a year, which is processed by local processors into 1.5 pound packages for a small fee. The cost of such "processing" is called "value-added." Food banks are allowed to pass on these handling fees to their agencies. The Food Bank tries to raise funds to subsidize "value-added" products.

NUTRITION EDUCATION / ADVOCACY _____

COMMUNITY GARDEN

Located on the Food Bank's property, this community garden offers 22 adoptable garden beds to income-eligible individuals, families and groups. Participants are walked through the growing process by volunteers and classes are held in the garden on Thursdays and Saturdays throughout the growing season. Participants may keep their harvest, trade it with other participants or donate it back to the Food Bank for use on the Food Express program.

FOOD SAFETY TRAINING

The Food Bank offers an online, interactive training course about basic food safety. Available, free of charge, to member agencies, the 30-minute course includes information about foodborne illness, personal hygiene and proper receiving, storage and repacking practices. The Food Bank also offers ServSafe Certification for our agencies that prepare meals for clients on-site. These classes cover a more extensive amount of food safety information including proper food preparation, cooking and serving techniques. This class is offered at different times during the year and requires two days of classroom training and a third day for a certification exam.

GOOD COOKIN'

Through the Food Bank's member agencies, adults of all ages can participate in a free, five week cooking course in the Food Bank facility's kitchen. Here they will learn about the new trends in nutrition and easy ways to prepare healthy, well-balanced meals and snacks. They will also receive tips about shopping on a budget and at the end of each class day, they will be provided with recipes and ingredients so they can recreate those meals at home.

JUST SAY YES TO FRUITS AND VEGETABLES (JSY)

Just Say Yes to Fruits and Vegetables is a New York State initiative, designed to prevent obesity and to reduce long term chronic disease by promoting the increased consumption of fruits and vegetables. By conducting nutrition education workshops and food demonstrations, JSY has worked to ensure low-income families in NYS choose more nutritious foods, make the most of their food budgets and prepare foods in a safe manner. Each workshop provides practical nutrition information using recipes and cooking demonstrations involving fresh produce. The JSY Program, in partnership with emergency food providers, is dedicated to improving the health and nutritional status of SNAP populations in NYS. As part of a new initiative throughout the summer, JSY Nutritionists are providing nutrition education workshops at the Elmwood-Bidwell Farmers' Market in downtown Buffalo. Workshops are held each Saturday from July through September.
