Food Bank of WNY promotes Catherine Shick to Public & Community Relations Manager

BUFFALO — Marylou Borowiak, President & CEO of the Food Bank of Western New York, recently announced the promotion of Catherine Shick to Public & Community Relations Manager. Ms. Shick previously served as the Public & Community Relations Coordinator for the Food Bank.

Ms. Shick's responsibilities include managing the communications and public relations activities for the Food Bank, providing education on the Food Bank's brand and mission to corporate and community groups, and fostering relationships with media outlets in the four counties served by the organization. She leads the Food Bank's public policy initiative, reaching out to elected officials who have an impact on the organization's service area. Ms. Shick is also involved with donor relations, fundraising, and business development efforts for the Food Bank as it continues to fight hunger one day at a time.

"Catherine's diverse skill set, passion, and commitment to our mission make her a great asset to the Food Bank. She works hard for local families in need, and is well-deserving of this promotion," said Ms. Borowiak.

Ms. Shick is a graduate of the State University of New York at Fredonia, where she received a Bachelor of Arts in English. She resides in Orchard Park, N.Y. with her husband.

(The Food Bank of WNY is the primary hunger-relief organization in Western New York, obtaining and distributing food to 329 member agencies including food pantries, shelters, soup kitchens, youth programs, and senior centers in Cattaraugus, Chautauqua, Erie, and Niagara counties. Through these agencies, the Food Bank of WNY serves as many as 129,322 individuals in any given month, including more than 44,000 families, 45,000 children, and nearly 17,000 seniors.
